

Wolaita Sodo University
College of Social Science and Humanities
Department of Archeology

Graduate Profile:

Graduates of the B.A. in Archaeology and Heritage management will be able to: -

- ☞ Design archaeological and laboratory research projects and undertake surveying, excavation and analysis as per requirements of the discipline
- ☞ Record, describe and classify archival documents, museum and archaeological objects
- ☞ Participate in and organize cultural exhibitions and promotions at national and international levels
- ☞ Work effectively as experts and conservators in the area of Cultural Heritage Management
- ☞ Design, organize and carry out courses of instruction in archaeology and cultural heritage management at tertiary level in Ethiopia and elsewhere.
- ☞ Initiate and coordinate projects, organize archaeological teams, explore new sites, serve as professionals of heritage tour guides and use as supervisors, directors of archaeological excavations and other field related tasks in the field of study.

7

- ☞ Plan, research, manage, and consult in Archaeology, Heritage Management and Tourism
- ☞ Plan and advise travel agents and tour operators;
- ☞ Consult services in tourism, hotel and heritage conservation and archaeological research
- ☞ Organize, and offer courses for institutions in tourism and hotel operation, heritage management and archaeological research;
- ☞ Conduct impact assessment projects and mitigation measures.
- ☞ Understand and develop tourism resources.
- ☞ It is also expected that graduates will be either self-employed or employees of the followings institutions:

- Ministry of Culture and Tourism
- Ministry of Transport and Communication
- Ministry of Education
- Ministry of Rural and Agricultural Development
- Ministry of Mines and Energy

- Ministry of Works and Urban Development
- . Regional Cultural and Tourism Bureaus
- Ethiopian Religious Institutions
- International organizations
- Ethiopian Wildlife Conservation Authority
- Ethiopian Road Authority
- Environmental Authority
- Ethiopian Airlines
- Private organizations.
- Hotel, tour and travel sectors

Degree Nomenclature

The degree awarded will bear the nomenclature:

Bachelor of Arts in Archaeology and Heritage Management